

MATOBO · ZIMBABWE

2027 COLLECTION

A wedding in the hills.

Your people. The whole lodge. Time together.

The lodge is yours.

GRANITE AND THATCH, MATOBO NATIONAL PARK

Bring the people who matter.
Give them a few days in Matobo.

Book the whole lodge for 24 or 48 hours. Your family and friends can stay among the granite, gather for the ceremony and sit down to dinner together. Breakfast is part of the following morning.

RECEPTION
GUESTS

17 stone-and-thatch chalets plus the Director's Cottage. The reception total includes guests staying at the lodge.

Make a weekend of it.

i.

Arrive before the day.

A 48-hour booking gives you the day before to settle in and arrange supplier setup within your venue-hire period. Ask about an I Do braai for the first evening.

ii.

Then take your time together.

Plan the ceremony around the light and weather. Gather for the reception, then meet again over breakfast before departure. Your agreed schedule sets the timings.

Extra meals, activities and supplier services are quoted separately.

Dinner under thatch.

A few things to plan.

01

Arrival and setup

Venue access runs from 11 am to 11 am. Room check-in is from 2 pm on the first day. Arrange supplier access and collection within the booked period.

02

The practical list

Confirm the room list, guest transport, dietary needs and suppliers. Ask the team to agree a weather plan and to check access needs before you choose the ceremony setting.

03

What you bring in

Décor, tables, chairs, tablecloths, chair covers and sound equipment are not included in the venue price. The lodge provides basic reception crockery, cutlery and glassware with Royal and Gold. Drinks are additional.

04

More time in Matobo

Guests extending their stay can ask about rhino tracking, the rock-art sites or World's View. Activities, park fees and transfers need to be agreed and costed. They are not automatic wedding inclusions.

TERMS Payment, cancellation and postponement terms are confirmed in the event agreement. Read them before paying a deposit.

07 — BEGIN WITH A DATE

Tell us about your wedding.

Send your preferred date, any flexibility, reception numbers and how many guests would like to stay. Tell us if you have a planner, too.
